

Bike and Bodega

Cycling 18km - 24km

Take a pleasant bike ride through the countryside near Ronda and then finish your tour with a visit to a local organic wine bodega, with winery visit, wine tasting and lunch or Iberian tapas selection.

The bike ride can be varied from 18-24km, depending on your preference. The riding is easy and pleasant, on a mix of quiet roads and smooth tracks. The route takes you cross country, passing market gardens, olive and almond groves. The final section takes you up to the vineyard of the Bodega Joaquin Fernandez, set on a hillside with stunning views across the valley to Ronda.

The tour with lunch is for minimum 4 people and includes tasting of 4 organic wines and a 3-course lunch.

The tour with tapas is for 2 or more people and includes tasting of 4 organic wines with a selection of Iberian products.

Optional extra: tasting of 3 types of organic Andalusian extra virgin olive oil with toasted bread is available on both tours. Extra €10 per person.
