

Grazalema Natural Park

Mountain Bike - Moderate

This route explores the heart of the Sierra de Grazalema Natural Park, a protected region of rocky mountain crags, karst valleys and cork oak forests. You will enjoy some of the best cross country biking in the area, taking in the mountain sierras which make up the park. You will ride through dramatic and unspoilt landscape and will soon feel as though you have left the world behind and are on a great MTB adventure.

Starting between the white villages of Grazalema and Villaluenga, we head out into a valley surrounded by cork oak forest and towering mountain Sierra peaks. We ride along small trails and up through the cork oak forests before descending to the great expanse of the valley below, with views of the rock formations on the edges of the Sierra de Libar. There is an optional mid-ride visit to the village of Villaluenga. We will pass the entrance of the Sima da Cabito and Sima del Republicano (200m deep shafts) and then pick our way back towards the start point, using isolated goat paths and farmers' trails.
