

Ronda to Olvera MTB

Mountain Bike - Moderate

Riding from Ronda you will pass through olive groves and vineyards north of the town. An easy and long descent into the village of Setenil de las Bodegas gives us the chance for a quick coffee or cool drink before we continue on to Olvera. From Setenil we ascend back into the hills above the village and ride along trails above the valley which eventually gives great views of Olvera in the distance, sitting atop a high peak with its large church and castle in view. Another nice descent takes us into a valley from which we then climb up to the town. Ride up to the church and castle for great views looking back over the countryside you have ridden through.

This ride does not require a lot of MTB experience and mostly follows wide dirt tracks. It does require a moderate amount of bike fitness for the hills in the second half of the ride.
