

Torrecilla Night Hike

Walking - Challenging

Take in the magnificence of the sunrise from the highest peak in western Andalucia. Torrecilla peak is set at 1,919 metres above sea level and towers above the Mediterranean Sea and Costa del Sol resorts to the south and Serrania de Ronda to the north. To the east you can see the Sierra Nevada in Granada and to the west the Rock of Gibraltar.

This hike starts early in the morning under the cover of night and by the light of the moon. It takes 2 to 3 hours to ascend Torrecilla, along a wide track, and you are rewarded by watching the sun rise as you rest your legs, taking an early breakfast whilst your guide prepares a nice hot cup of coffee. The walk back down the mountain will give you fantastic views of the Sierra de las Nieves as you descend in the early morning light along a narrow pathway through ancient pine forests.
