

Torrecilla Ascent

Walking - Challenging

The peak of Torrecilla is the highest mountain in Western Andalusia at 1,919 metres above sea level. This is a shorter option than the Torrecilla peak, west to traverse but still allows you to enjoy the unmatched views from the top of the mountain. From here you can see for miles in every direction, towards the Mediterranean Sea, Rock of Gibraltar, Sierra Nevada and the Serrania de Ronda.

This is a challenging walk but the views are amazing and you will feel like you are on top of the world.
